THE MIRCHI MINUTE

NEWBS, BONDING & RECORDING!

MITCHES BONDING!

Mitch's pumpkin carving and hot cider event ft. alums Liv, Swathi, and Ellie, newbs Sumedha and Bella, and Muskaan's jazzy thumbs up.

WELCOME!!!

WRITTEN BY: RYAN HSU AND KIRAN MANGRULKAR

Hello! As master oogway would most likely say: all of the decisions you have ever made in life have lead you to this moment. So wonderful work! We are happy to have you joining us for the first edition of Maize Mirchi's monthly newsletter, designed to provide our alumni with a little glimpse into the lives of current Mirchi and the heartfelt legacy you all left with us.

In this issue, we have much to share on our newest members, upcoming recording/comp plans, and how we have successfully bonded during these uncertain times.

Males Mirchi Bonding!

The boys came together for some hectic grilling ft. cross contamination, new-fangled Among Us gameplay, and Kiran, Ryan and newbie Ayush Jain each losing some life expectancy to Mad Dog 357. To be expected, the guys were unable to capture any moments of this wild event in photo.

NEWBSS!!!!

We are SOOOOOOOO excited to welcome Sumedha, Bella, Ayush, and Jill to Mirchi!!! These talented newbs hail from the Novi/Northville area and are Mirchis in every single way. In the craziest of circumstances, they have picked up a ton of music in such little time and we are so so proud of them :) Check out our recent insta posts for more info on each one of these beautiful people!

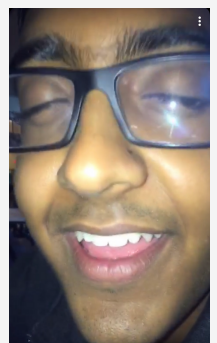

UPDATES!

- Although COVID-19 restrictions are keeping our in-person meetings limited, we are determined to record this & next semester for our next album! We hope to record our ICCA set from winter 2020 semi-finals, along with "Fruit", "Streetcar", and "Dilbaro"
- Check out Prakash's interview on Spotify with Voices Only where he discusses the Winterbird/Albela Sajan arrangement on the Voices Only 2020 Vol. II album!

MIRCHI MEMORY & WRAP-UP

Roughly one year ago we performed at Spookappella! Enjoy this throwback of Varun (the big, bad wolf) and the three little pigs-- Laila, Saachi and Sanomi. Varun was NOT happy about serving in this role.

We hope you all enjoyed this Mirchi Minute, we miss you all SOOOO much. Please stay safe & healthy, and use this beautiful image of our dear PRAKASH to help you get through the next month <3 We love you!

With Love,
Kiran, Ryan, and Maize Mirchi
